

Courses and Catalog

- Finding courses
- Info page

Courses and other learning resources, i.e. learning content and learning activities of all kinds, are the linchpin of OpenOLAT. This chapter explains how to search for such resources and book them as OpenOLAT user without author rights.

"Finding courses" explains tools and views for ordinary OpenOLAT users and how to search for courses. There are also information about the catalog and how to use it.

"Info page" introduces the courses' Info page, where detailed information on the course is provided. Actions available to users without authors rights will be explained here.
